| Handsworth Community Park | 0.5 Mile 0.8 Km | Handsworth Sheffield | OS 111 Sheffield & Doncaster |

Handsworth is on the South outskirts of Sheffield and has as its focal point St. Mary's Church which can be seen for miles around and dates back to 1170 [see websites] and is mentioned in the doomsday book.

Handsworth Community Park was originally a Recreation Park and a few years ago the Handsworth Forum Group obtained funding to improve the park for children's activities and it is suitable for a short walk for all and wheelchair friendly with a nice view of the surrounding area.

- Facilities – In Handsworth there are a number of Public Houses selling food – Asda 24 hour super market – McDonalds - Local Shops – 4 Churches – Handsworth Parish Centre – 3 Primary Schools – 2 Secondary Schools

There are many side roads for car parking.

- Café – The following Public Houses all serve food – The Sword Dancer – Anglers Rest Inn – Old Crown – The Handsworth Inn – Asda super market – there are also a few sandwich shops.

- Toilets – All the Public Houses have well equipped toilets.

- Path – Handsworth Park is a small community park with children's climbing and activity frames, basketball court and a sports field, with a few benches to sit on. The path through the park is of a good tarmac surface with a slight slope and suitable for all wheelchairs.

It is a forward and back walk. At present wheelchair users are unable to go through a steel barrier, but in time this may be altered which would lead onto the Finchwell Estate path.
