The walk starts at the country village of Baslow in Derbyshire and is very scenic as the famous Chatsworth House comes into view with the surrounding Chatsworth Park area with the trees and farm animals on the hillside. You can then walk into the Chatsworth House & Gardens, which has numerous facilities.

Also see the walk from Edensor to Chatsworth.

- Facilities – At Chatsworth House there are ‘The Stables’ which have a restaurant and café, souvenirs and gift shop, garden shop – outside seating area. You can also have a tour around the Chatsworth Gardens or Chatsworth House for which there is a charge. There is also a children’s animal farm to which there is a charge.

At Baslow are a crafts centre, village shop and café’s and 3 local inns.

There is a pay and display car park in Baslow – or you could do the walk the other way round and park at the Chatsworth House car park where there is a charge.

- Café – At Chatsworth House ‘The Stables’ has a restaurant and a large self service café with a large seating area, there is also a seating outside – There is also a small snack restaurant near the toilets – Baslow has a few café’s and 3 local inns.

- Toilets – At Baslow there are public toilets – also at Chatsworth House there are good toilets situated at the entrance and also near the ‘The Stables’ all-adequate for the disabled.
- Path - The path from Baslow is slightly undulating in areas with most of the paths made up of a hard gravel / stone which can be bobbly - and at Chatsworth there are some rolled in gravel areas and then tarmac paths. — The path is suitable for motorised wheelchairs. Manual wheelchairs / pushchairs will need a strong pusher and to try out the suitability.

Also for people in manual wheelchairs you can park at Chatsworth House and there are a few flat areas, but also a steep hill up to ‘The Stables’, which will require a strong pusher. I have also shown on the walk quite a very steep tarmac path upto the Tower.
